SAUNDRA D.

Saundra, known to many as “Sandy”, was born on August 3, 1943 in Bakersfield, CA as her parents’ only child. She was married and divorced once to

Ralph Dorsey, whom she met at Arvin High School, and they were married three years later. Sandy has two children: daughter Traci and son Tyson. She is the proud grandmother to three grandchildren from her son and three step grandchildren from her son, and four grandchildren from her daughter. She loves her family and hanging out with all of them. Her good friends are her classmate, Glenda, and Linda, a friend from church. Sandy loves to read novels, color and crochet. She believes that God knows best, and prays often. She hopes to live up to 90 or 95. Her favorite saying is, “See you later alligator ~ after a while crocodile.”
